We've Only

We've only just begun to live
White lace and promises
A kiss for love and we're on our way
Well yes we've just begun
Sharing horizons that are new to us
Watching the signs along the way
Talking it over just the two of us
Working together day to day
Together and when the evening comes we smile so much of life ahead.
We'll find a place where there's room to live
And yes we've just begun to live

Just Begun

Before the rising sun we fly
So many roads to choose
We start out walking and learn to run
And yes we've just begun
Sharing horizons that are new to us
Watching the signs along the way
Talking it over just the two of us
Working together day to day together and when the evening comes we smile so much of life ahead
We'll find a place where there's room to live
And yes we've just begun to live.

The Class of 1971 respectfully dedicates its yearbook to a man who has given his time and effort to both the faculty and the student body of Fairhaven High School. Teaching is more than a profession to this man, it is a way in which he can give a little of himself to help others.

His calm expression and mannerism make his students enjoy learning his subjects. For many years he has unselfishly served as faculty advisor of The Huttlestonian; therefore, it is our honor to call upon you, Mr. Manuel Fontes, and say "Thank You."

Stanley J. Grabiec
Fairhaven High School
Principal

To the Class of 1971:

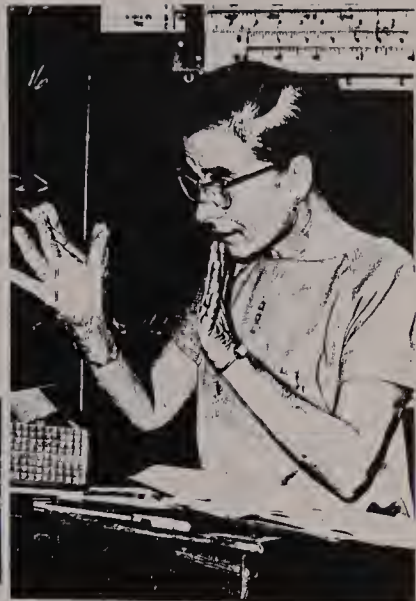

Our democracy is facing a crisis. There are dangers from abroad and from within. To meet these threats, the present generation, adult and student alike, must assume greater responsibilities if the benefits of democracy are to endure and if the functioning of democracy is to continue unimpaired.

It is mandatory, therefore, that young people today must have understanding of the meaning of democracy, a sincere devotion to its ideals, some experience in the democratic way of living, and a desire to work for its preservation and improvement.

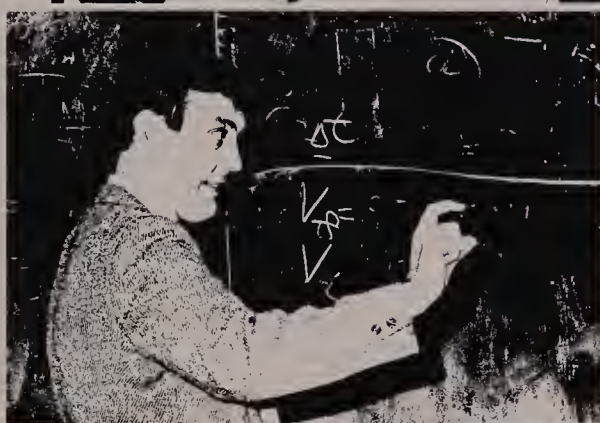

To the implementations of these premises, education at this school is committed. It is hoped that, in future years, the dedicated citizenship of our graduates will attest to the wisdom of that commitment.

Sincerely,

Stanley J. Grabiec

Fairhaven High School organized a cross-country team for the first time ever last fall. The practice consisted of a 10-mile course which was strung throughout Fairhaven. Because this was the first year and only a few boys participated, it was impossible to compete in conference competition; therefore, 3 exhibition meets made up their schedule. Their opposition consisted of Upper Cape Regional, Wareham, and Ap-ponequet. At these meets, a $2\frac{1}{2}$ mile course is run with the first ten finishers getting points. With only 6 members it would be rather difficult to win a competition. The 1970 season proved a successful beginning to this new sport at FHS. With four returning underclassmen and a little more interest, cross-country could become a major fall sport.

This year's outstanding seniors were Rocky Pease, Brian Young, and Lindsey Gifford. They were the top three scorers on the team. In five dual meets, Pease scored 44 points, Young, 21, and Gifford 17. At the Falmouth invitation, Young finished 2nd in the mile and Pease was 3rd in the 50 yard dash, outstanding feats in the field of nearly 50 teams.

Brian broke Fairhaven's mile record and the Capeway Conference record for the winter track mile.

Lindsey was 1st in the shot put at the Capeway Conference meet.

Rocky finished 2nd in the 50 yard dash at the same meet.

1970-71 Basketball Write-up

Before the season started, Coach Wilson was interviewed by the Standard Times. His probable starters were to be Steve Koska, Steve Ponte, Gary Valerio, and Blair Fitts and his major prospect was Mike Camacho. Barnstable, in his opinion, was the team to beat and the outcome goes without saying.

The season opened at Taunton with a heart-breaking 48 to 46 loss. Fairhaven's scoring was equally distributed which prevailed throughout the season.

The Capeway schedule opened with a loss to powerful Barnstable. Fitts led with 18 points and showed much promise.

After an easy victory at Wareham, Fairhaven put together its finest effort at Dartmouth. The entire team played well as four players hit double figures.

After a costly loss to Bourne, the Devils won a thrilling 72 to 70 victory over Falmouth. Steve Koska had his finest output with 20 points.

In the second encounter with Barnstable, Fairhaven lost a tough 59 to 52 decision. An all-around team effort was not enough to beat the strong Raiders, and 6 victories in a row were now necessary to qualify for the Tech.

After a tough win over Wareham, the Devils coasted to 5 easy wins and were in the Tech!

For the third time this season Fairhaven had to play the big Barnstable team and tech tourney hopes came to an end as the Raiders won 70 to 53. Steve Ponte scored 19 points and played a strong board game but the season long team balance was not present.

A most successful and exciting season had come to an end. Hats off to Coach Wilson and his fine Fairhaven crew!!!!

Steve Ponte, Fairhaven's leading scorer, was 6th in the league in that department. He was the team's "big man" and obviously was a Capeway All-Star.

Junior Mike Camacho was the Devils 4th All-Star pick.

Junior Varsity Season Summary

The Fairhaven High School junior varsity squad enjoyed their finest season in recent years, and the best record ever for Coach John Losert. The team compiled an outstanding 15 and 2 over-all record, including 14 straight wins. Of these 14 wins, twelve were in Capeway Conference play, as the team breezed their way to a perfect season and the conference championship. George Howland, Jim Cunha, and David Almeida were tabbed as "outstanding candidates for next year's varsity." Congratulations to coach Losert and his Capeway champions!!

As our sophomore year began our spirits burst forth. Together we experienced our first year of high school sports, activities, and classes. With joint forces our class officers and executive board, under the leadership of Mrs. Patricia Mello, launched our class project of selling candy during the Easter season.

As we end this year we would like to wish the Seniors the best of luck in their endeavors of the future. To the juniors, a successful Senior year. Finally, we agree with mutual emotions that we will meet again and have a prosperous junior year.

"Buying all those delicious candy bars sure put me in a hole!!!"

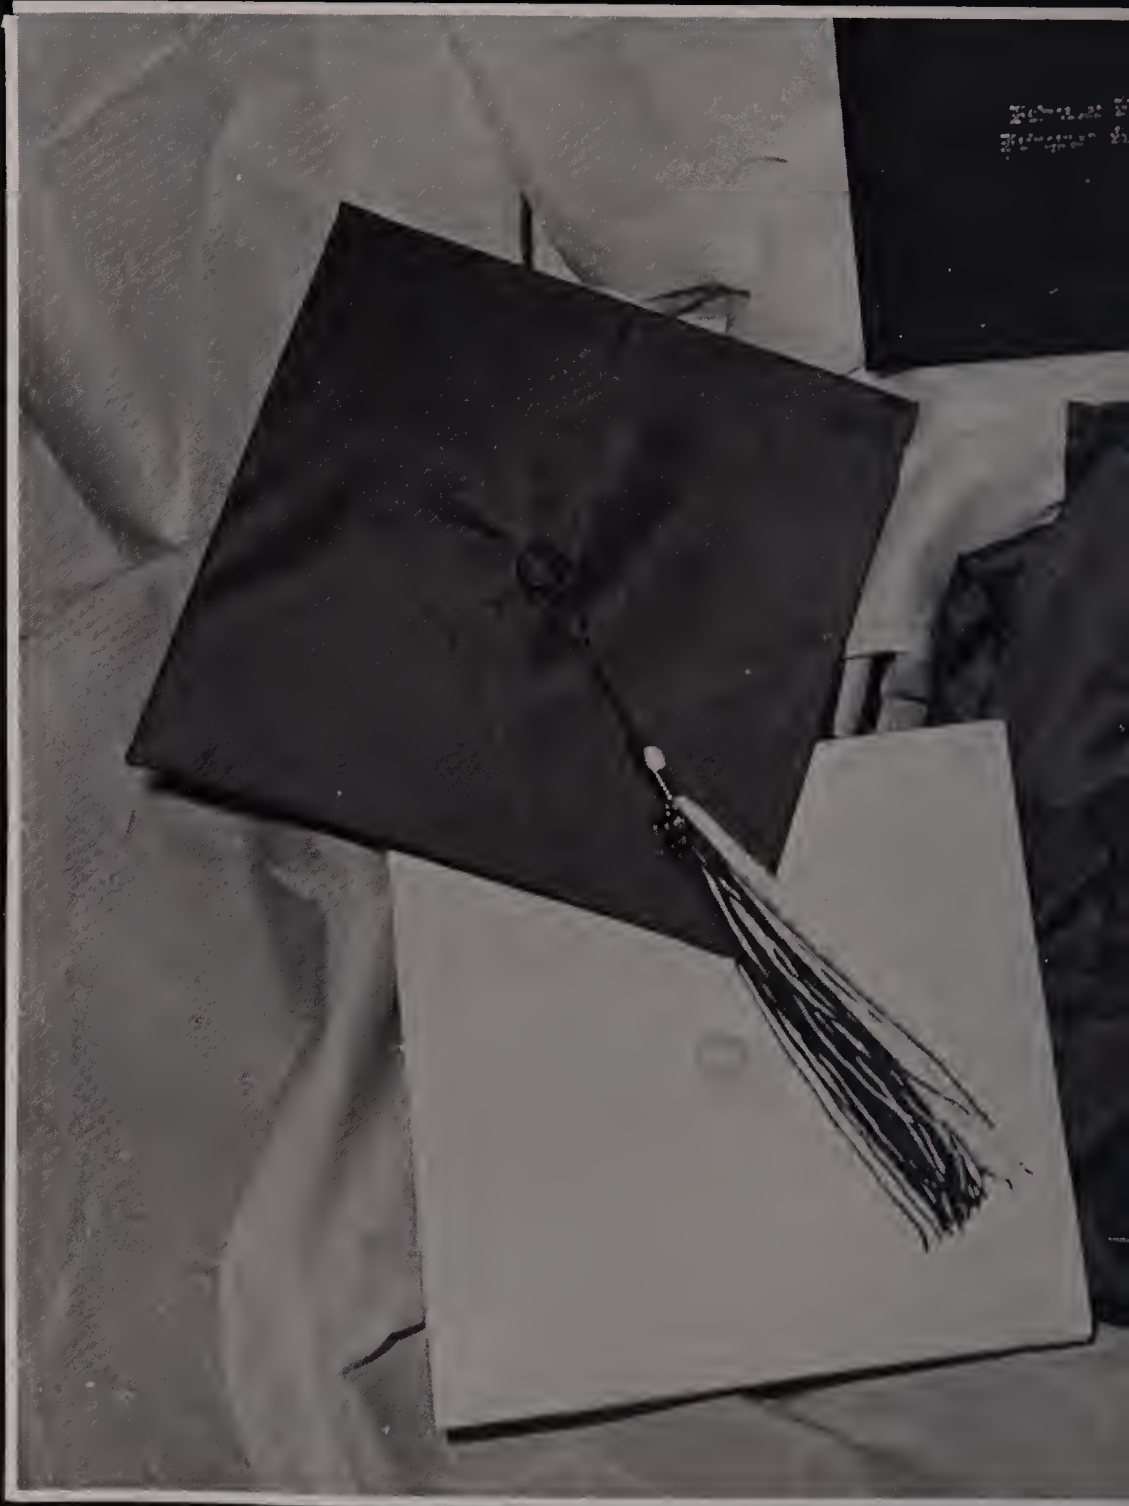

On returning to school in September, our officers; Gary Valerio, Kathy Gouveia, Joanne Bennett, and Martha Sibor, began to plan a full year of activities highlighted by the Junior Prom. The first order of business was to elect an executive board: Carl Albritton, Kathy Chandler, Dave Grindrod, Charlie Jones, Diane Mitchell, Irene Resendes, and Debbie Sears. Selling candy bars was selected as our class project. With the guidance of Mr. Carlton Albritton and Mr. Fernando Silva it proved to be an immense success.

On May 7, 1971 the Junior Prom was held. The Larch Avenue Auditorium was decorated to the theme of "The Wonderful World of Yesteryear". It had an old-fashioned atmosphere which was filled with the lively sounds of Ray Besse and his Orchestra. Our great year ended on Junior Day when we were officially "Seniors".

"We are but just one step away from greatness and before the rest of the world knows it; we are going to take that step."

Shirley and her date

A Time for Us

Our theme for the Junior Prom was "A Time For Us", the love theme from Romeo and Juliet. Keeping this in mind, the art department magically transformed our addition auditorium into a scene from Shakespeare's famous play. The room was reminiscent of the Renaissance Era with a beautiful blending of color, soft lighting, and delightful music.

The members of the court were Shirley Faria, Rebecca Fleisch, Dale Fostin, Catherine Maynard, Donna Patasini, Sylvia Pukulis, Paula Ruszel, Deborah Sheffield, Carol Sprouse, and Catherine Tucker. The girls walked up to their places on the stage as "A Time For Us" was played in the background.

The tension of the evening was soon to be relieved. Class President Phillip Mello escorted the new lady-in-waiting, Paula Ruszel, to the center of the stage. The 1969 Junior Prom Queen, Kathleen Morgan, crowned our new queen Shirley Faria and handed her the queen's roses. Shirley and her escort then began the Queen's Dance.

The evening was an enjoyable one for all who attended the prom.

Junior Day

On June 5, 1970 our long awaited Junior Day arrived. Although the day was met with rain, our spirits were not dampened. We gazed upon our fellow classmates in spring lace and pressed suits seldom seen in the corridors of F.H.S. Everyone helped to fasten the traditional yellow roses, then waited in anticipation for our grand entrance into the auditorium. After the sophomores and guests had been seated, our entrance march "Pomp and Circumstance" began. The Seniors filed in to the strains of "Scipio", and the assembly was underway.

Philip Mello, president of our class, received the mantle from the Senior Class president Charles Humphreys. Albert Gaucher played a solo, and awards were given. The College Club Book Award was given to Rebecca Fleisch, and the Harvard Club Book Award went to William Fleisch. Finally, the secret of the Yearbook Dedication was announced. Mr. Silva was the proud and lucky teacher. Through tears the Senior Chorus sang "The Halls of Ivy", and the program was over. The Seniors left now only to return for graduation. We Juniors left with a happy feeling of responsibility, authority, and high hopes for the coming year.

Class History

We left the ninth grade feeling scared
To enter F.H.S.
The corridors amazed us,
Soon, we were in a mess.
Girls were on the boys stairs
The tunnel was a pain
“Left or right at the locker rooms?”
We asked seniors time and time again.
The hugeness of Room 7
Was an awesome thing
While wild penny throwing never ceased to ring.
We were underclassmen and
We felt it all the way.
Insults ringing in our ears, a few smiles, lots of sneers
We witnessed every day.
Then we started waking up,
That dazed look left our eyes.
Now our shining personalities
At last began to rise.
James Gidley was our President
His “Vice” was Charlene Kenney
Debi Motta was Secretary
While Gary Hammond saved each penny.
Phoebe Taylor, William Fleisch,
Albert Gaucher, Karen Alexion,
Kathy Pepin—The Executive Board
Who helped with their suggestions.
Our officers were something else!
From the start we bucked tradition.
Chocolate bunnies were out of it,
Toothbrush selling was our mission.
Through all the groans and chuckles
We became millionaires
Though our helpful advisors
Earned a few gray hairs.
Then we summoned all our wits,
Used courage and some chance
Marched into Mr. Grabiec’s office
And won an “untraditional” Sophomore Dance!
Anyone from miles around
Could place a sure thing bet
That we would be the greatest class
F.H.S. has seen yet!

Before we knew what had happened
Our Junior year was here
No more little sophomores
No more sitting in the rear
A feeling of pride o’erwhelmed us
Now we were more self-assured.
The new sophomores were below us
It was their turn to feel absurd
By the time October rolled around

Each student had his ring
The final mark of superiority
The proof of everything.
The football season was fantastic
Our Juniors took a leading role
Basketball was much the same
As many Juniors stole the show.
Our officers worked hard all year
Dedicated thru and thru
And now as a reminder
We’ll name them all for you.
Phil Mello was the President
Danny Costa was his “Vice”
Gary Hammond was the treasurer
Secretary was Becky Fleisch.
The Executive Board consisted of
Listen carefully so you’ll hear us
Al Gaucher, Ed Zieba, Kathy Magnant,
Jane Ryle and Mark Medeiros.
But now there are two more members
We haven’t mentioned yet
Shelly Alphonse and Karen Hanczaryk
These two complete the set.
Candy-selling was our project
To make money for the prom
Thus were relatives forced to buy
Aunt, uncle, dad, and mom.
That year the students began to protest
A new dress code was their aim
April saw short skirts and moustaches
The kids had won their game.
The Junior Prom was drawing near
Our class began to worry
Where to rent a tux, what gown to wear,
Must be decided in a hurry.
The date was set at May the 8th,
The theme “A Time For Us”
The queen’s court was selected
All after much bother and fuss.
That night the couples arrived arm in arm
Dressed up fit to kill
Soon it was time to choose the queen
And everyone kept still.
Phil Mello was the first to know
That the lady-in-waiting was Paula Ruszel
Shirley Faria, our 1970 queen,
Was smiling, happy, and tres belle.
And now the year was almost thru
Only one more big event
That, of course, was Junior Day
What else could we have meant?
Yellow roses and carnations
Were worn by each girl and boy

We filed into the auditorium
With feelings of great joy.
Awards were soon to be given out
Al Gaucher played the French horn
Phil Mello received the class mantle
The seniors had a look of forlorn.
We filed out to some music
The day had finally come
At last we were Seniors
We were number one!
All summer we'd anticipated
Our final senior year.
In September, 1970
At last the time was here.
Now in those halls of F.H.S.
We would try to pass the test
That's taken by all the Seniors
To be the highest and the best,
We were dismayed, at first, to find
That everything felt the same
Then suddenly we learned the rules
And played the "Senior Game".
We were leaders on the Spray
And tried for new ideas.
Next, a yearbook to create,
"How?", we voiced our fears!
Graduation gowns, the Senior Play,
Soon these troubled our brain
Taking Senior pictures too!
A pleasure or a pain?
Wallet photos soon appeared
On every desk and hand
Seniors writing, "Remember when—"
Saying, "Give me one, understand?"
Of course there was Frank Guerra
Exchange student at Fairhaven High
He left the Philippines to come here
And he was a really great guy
Distributive Education was a course
That had started in the fall
Also, there was definitely
No dress code left at all!
Then we noticed all our friends
Who we would have to leave

We felt our closeness and that time
Was flying faster than we dared believe.
Some students were making plans to go
To France on the April vacation!
Our officers were working hard
To plan our graduation.
We'd had a successful candy sale
With President Danny Costa, Also,
Marlene Livramento, Kathy Magnant, and Gary
Hammond
The others officers on the roster.
Eddie Zieba and Pam Couto

Mark Medeiros, Candy Allain
The Executive Board who worked so hard.
Our sports this year had been exciting
The "Turkey Day" game was great!
Basketball, baseball, tennis, and track
Were nothing but first rate!
June that special month of all
That month of closing books
Came as we gave to friends and school
Farewells and long last looks.
Our Senior Prom, the ultimate!
Our banquet as a class—
Vespers, and our graduation
A hard-earned diploma, at last!
It's true that all these years of school
Were all we'd ever known.
As we walked in cap and gown
Everyone thought of how we'd grown.
And mixed in our emotions
Along with tears and pride
Was a yearning for the future
Which we couldn't entirely hide.
Our hopes and dreams and ideal plans
Did pound within each heart.
We realized truly that this was not
An end, but just a start.

May we live up to expectations
May we prove our worthiness
May we make the world a better place and strive for happiness.

Eternal Friendship

—Edgar A. Guest

Who once has had a friend has found
The link 'twixt mortal and divine;
Though now he sleeps in hallowed ground,
He lives in memory's sacred shrine;
And there he freely moves about,
A spirit that has quit the clay,
And in the times of stress and doubt
Sustains his friends throughout the day.

No friend we love can ever die;
The outward form but disappears;
I know that all my friends are nigh
Whenever I am moved to tears.
And when my strength and hope are gone,
The friends, no more, that once I knew,
Return to cheer and urge me on
Just as they always used to do.

They whisper to me in the dark
Kind words of counsel and of cheer;
When hope has flickered to a spark
I feel their gentle spirits near.
And Oh! because of them I strove
With all the strength that I can call
To keep their friendship still alive
And to be worthy of them all.

Death does not end our friendships true;
We all are debtors to the dead;
There, wait on everything we do
The splendid souls who've gone ahead.
To them I hold that we are bound
By double pledges to be fine.
Who once has had a friend has found
The link 'twixt mortal and divine.

Edith Moore

For there is hope of a tree,
If it be cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that the tender branch thereof will not cease.
Though the root thereof wax old in the earth,
And the stock thereof die in the ground;
Yet through the scent of water it will bud,
And put forth boughs like a plant.
But man dieth, and lieth low;
Yea, man perisheth, and where is he?
As the waters fail from the sea,
And the river is drained dry;
So man lieth down and riseth not;
Till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake,
Nor be roused out of their sleep.

"A smile is the same in every language."

American Field Service

This year at F.H.S. the Senior class welcomed an A.F.S. student from Cagayan de Oro City in the Philippines. Francisco dela Fuente Guerra III lives with the Brault family at 215 Green Street. Frank enjoys his brother Ronnie and little sister Bonnie who were quite a change from nine brothers and sisters at home.

As a student at F.H.S. Frank is involved in the Hutt, is an Associate Editor of the Spray, a member of the Triple Quartet, and mixed chorus. He is also president of the A.F.S. club.

Our Filipino with the dimple loves snow, and will remember it when he returns to the 80 degree weather of his country. We will never forget Frank with his happy smile and friendly ways.

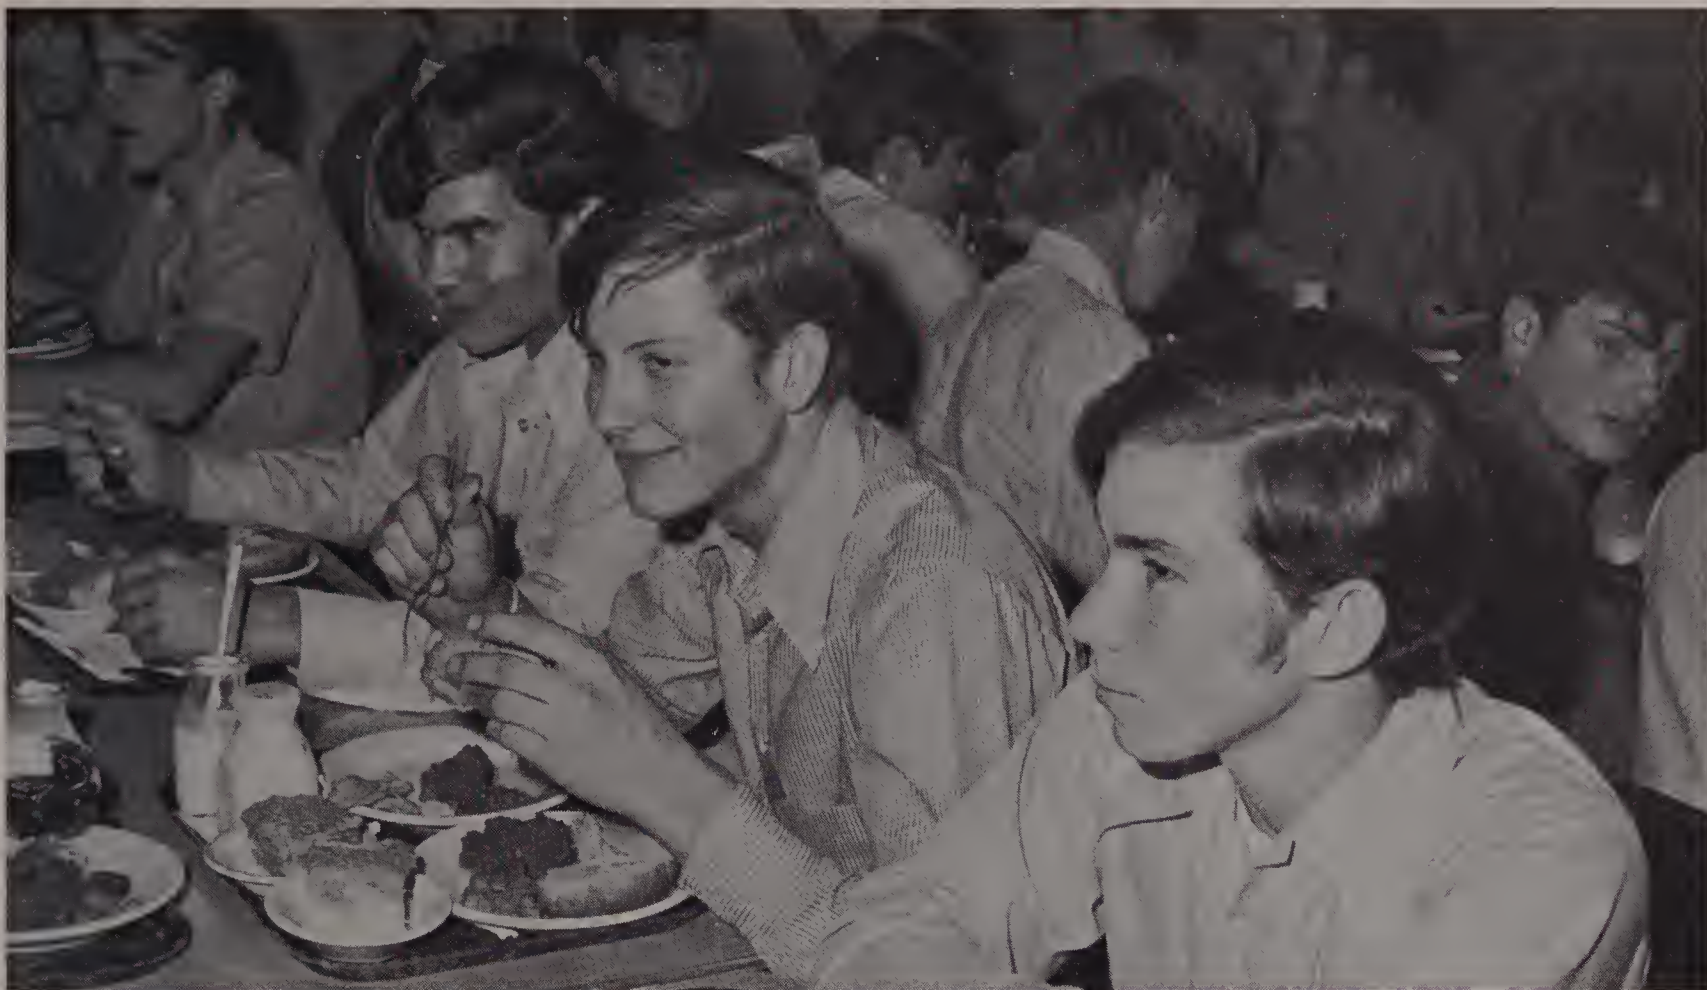

Just a little snakey-lick, Bill!

Another exciting day at F.H.S.

Warning: Sports Huddle in progress...

What was in those sandwiches?

Diane would never understand.

You wouldn't!!!

But honey I used a deodorant.

A kiss for luck.

My girdle is killing me!

Aw...You're CUTE!

Pick on somebody your own size.

Cheese.

Future leaders of America.

Filet of Sole.

Wait'll I tell the kids this bit of gossip.

Once upon a time...

Education stimulates the mind.

Yea, Right!!

Now get that straight.

Pollution strikes again.

Get a load of them!

Well, ring my chimes.

Guys and Dolls

I thought it was a wig.

Another great explanation by Delfino!

School pay...

All the comforts of home!

"Achoo"... "Such nonsense"... "You're such a scream"... "My hair is such a mess."

Class Prophecy

Please stay tuned for the Tonite Show. Sitting in for Johnny Carson tonite is Alan Clunie with his co-host Dickie Brennan. Our show is brought to you by STP. And now a word from our sponsor:

"This is Blair Fitts talking to Dave Moniz, winner of the Indy 500. Dave, could we have a word from you on STP?"

"Sure, Blair. Whenever I use STP my car races fast as can be!"

"Thank you, Dave. Now we'll return to the tonite show."

"Hi, folks! Tonite we've got a great show for you. Just a few of our guests are: International Playboy Phil Mello, the Celtics Star Player Steve Koska, and the famed Sue Sakwa, top designer from the House of Dior. Now a word of wisdom from Dickie,

"Supercalifragikisticexpialidocious!"

"Well, Dickie, that was about as funny as a flood in an Alka-Seltzer factory. Moving right along, let's take time out for a station break.

"Take it from opera singer Charles Dillingham," After each performance we opera singers are a little pony, I mean, a little hoarse, so we use Sucrets. Remember,

You will never fret,
If you always place your bet
On the one and only losenge
Sucret!!!

"Welcome back folks, I've been talking with Alan Waddington who has just finished his successful movie "The Draft Dodger." A. W., do you believe in nudity in films?"

"By all means I . . ."

"Now let's listen to the lovely voice of Karen Hanczaryk singing "We've Only Just Begun,"

"Wasn't that groovy, folks? By the way, I'd like to introduce saxophonist Bob Texeira, a new addition to our orchestra. Dickie, how about a run-down of the guests in our audience.

"Well, Danny Costa, the distinguished president of Newbury T.V. Inc. is here with his beautiful wife Candace Allain Costa, the former Miss America of 1976. Now if the camera man would kindly move the camera to the right, those of you in our T.V. audience could catch a glimpse of Ken Hansen the dedicated surgeon who has recently completed a delicate tonsil transplant. Also in our audience, Olympic stars Pat Cote and Duffy Gifford, novelist Bruce Morgan, prize fighter Yogi Souza, and millionaire Gary Hammond. And now a word from Carl Taber of the Boston Red Sox:

"Hi fellas! When I shave I like a close, clean shave, so I always use Platinum Plus by Gillette, the one that gives you a smoother, softer shave."

"Our next guest, Mr. Robert Newton, Chief of the Chicago

Police is here discussing his new method of crime prevention. Chief Newton, how would you like to listen to a song by Mary Lou Archambault and her group This Generation.

"Thank you, Mary Lou. I've just been talking to Miss Alexion who is seated at my right. Karen, dear, what do you think about that sort of music?"

"Oh, dahling, I simply adore it. . ."

We interrupt this show with a bulletin from President Zieba at the White House.

"My fellow Americans, it is a pleasure and an honor to acknowledge the successful accomplishment of astronauts Jeff DuPont and Maureen Barrow who have completed one year on the moon. I know you will share my pride and admiration for these two great Americans.

This has been a bulletin from the NBC newsroom. Now we will return to the regularly scheduled program.

"So, Paul, do you think a poker champ like yourself depends more on skill or chance?"

"Well, Al, a little of both!"

"For those of you in our T.V. audience, we have just been joined by Paul Avila and George Laronda the two poker players of the jet set. We'll be back to hear more from them in a minute. Now let's listen to some women who have their own individual ideas of what they like in stockings.

California: "Hi, I'm Pam Auffrey, Even a flower child likes a stocking which will make her look peaceful and flowery that's why I use Cling-a-Long-Hose.

Los Angeles: Exotic dancer Debbie Sheffield says, "When I'm under those lights I want my stockings to move with me! That's why Cling-a-Longs are for me!

Boston: "Here at the Medical Center," says Claudette Pare, "my stockings have to be white and neat. My profession calls for it, and I wouldn't think of using any other stocking than Cling-a-Long.

"Ladies use Cling-a-Long! No matter what type you are, Cling-a-Longs suit you day after day!"

"Well, Dickie, its sure been a great show hasn't it? I've appreciated hearing from our last guest, Clinton Pires, who's really setting some records in bowling and hockey. But, now its about that time, folks. Hope you've enjoyed tonite's show. Be here tomorrow night for a fabulous time again. Here's a rundown of our guests: "We'll have Rob Sicard, Hollywood's hot comic, two former Gibbs girls, Charlene Kenney and Pam Couto, Labor Union President Steve Lawton, Playboy bunny Kathy Maynard (that should be fun) and last but not least the knowledgeable and renowned James Gidley. Well, that's it for tonite, friends. Remember what your pal Al Clunie says "Always keep talking!"

"Goodnight, Al"

"Goodnight, Dickie"

The President: "But Father, it's increased the sales!"

. I believe in fulfilling the highest measure of service to my vocation, my fellow beings, my country and my God—that by so doing, I will be rewarded with personal satisfaction and material wealth.

"I fill it up whether they ask for it or not."

"That's right, I supply the syndicate."

"I get it all done without rushing."
